VOL. CXXXVII.—No. 151. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 1921. PRICE TWO CENTS

SIMS REBUKED FOR LONDON SPEECH

Given Sharp Public Reprimand by Secretary of Navy

SIMILAR OFFENSE 1911

"I Spilled the Beans and Got What Was Coming" Says Admiral—Flagrant Disregard" Shown

Washington, June 25.—Rear Admiral William S. Sims today was given an emphatic reprimand by Secretary of the Navy Denby for his "jackass" speech in London dealing with the Irish question. Although Admiral Sims stated that he had been incorrectly quoted and the context of his remarks had been garbled, Secretary Denby found that the Admiral's formal statement to the department of what he said "confirms in essential points" the newspaper reports.

No other punishment than the public reprimand was visited upon Admiral Sims. It was thought in many quarters that if he failed to disprove the press reports of his speech some more severe punishment than a reprimand would be given him, since he was reprimanded once before (in 1911) for a public speech in London. But, while Secretary Denby referred to that incident in his letter to Admiral Sims today, it was stated at the Navy Department that, the reprimand having been administered, Admiral Sims will proceed to Newport and resume his duties as president of the War College.

About the same time that Secretary Denby was making public the result of his inquiry into Admiral Sims' speech, the Admiral was a caller at the White House. The call aroused keen interest but when Admiral Sims left the President he assured the reporters that he had gone to see the President merely to pay his respects, in accordance with the custom of flag officers when in Washington. His visit apparently had been agreeable, and he showed no evidence of serious perturbation over the reprimand from Secretary Denby, of which he had been advised.

"I got what was coming to me," he said. "I spilled the beans. I am very sorry if I embarassed the President and the Administration, but I did not know that the speech was loaded, as it seems to have been."

"What are you going to do now?"

"Oh, I am going back to Newport tonight."

"Is that all?"

"So far as I know. The reprimand has been given and the incident, I take it, is closed."

In his letter to Admiral Sims Secretary Denby said:

"The Department insists on maintaining both the precedent and the propriety which forbid a Government servant of your position discussing such matters in a foreign country.

"That the impropriety of such utterances has once before been brought to your attention is shown by the fact that a public reprimand was administered to you in 1911 for making the following statement in a public speech in London:

"If the time ever comes when the British Empire is seriously menaced by an external enemy it is my opinion that you may count upon every man, every dollar, every drop of blood of your kindred across the sea.

"In the reprimand above mention of the duties and responsibilities of officers of the navy who speak in public were clearly and fully set forth. Your remarks on the occasion now under discussion, therefore, constitute a flagrant and deliberate disregard of specific instructions.

"The Navy Department is not unmindful of your record and achievements as an officer of the navy, but the conspicuous position you hold, coupled with the fact that you have have previously offended in a similar manner, merely serves to add to the gravity of the present offense.

"The department deplores the fact that it is necessary to rebuke a flag officer in public, but you have made such action unavoidable.

"The department expresses its strong and unqualified disapproval of

Order Of Red Deer

Plan Excursion August 22—To Initiate Class Next Month

The Red Deer held a meeting last night in the Westminster Building for the purpose of filling several offices left over at the first meeting and also to perfect plans for the moonlight excursion which the Red Deer will give August 22nd. It is understood that the officers were given an opportunity to rehearse their various parts preparatory to staging their first initiation meeting, which ceremony it is said is so interesting and entertaining as well as instructive that it has placed the Red Deer in the position, the first Southern strictly social fraternity should hold, viz. appealing solely to business and professional men of the best class.

The office of chaplain which was laid over at the first meeting for further consideration was filled last night and Charles Henry Smith was elected to act as chaplain.

The committee in charge of the excursion is such as to guarantee the success of the undertaking and consists of Messrs. W. L. Rammel, Dr. T. B. Cochran, J. Kent White, Charles Henry Smith and Dr. J. J Garvey.

A. Sidney Mankin the ruler of the lodge annouced that a good sized class of cadidates would be ready for the first ceremonial to be held early in July by which time it is expected several other Virginia towns in this vicinity will have opened a charter list and be prepared to send some of their applicants to take part in the first initiation in this city.

Supply Replenished

City License Auto Tags Now Ready For Distribution

An additional supply of city automobile license tags has just been received by Mayor Duncan and are ready for distribution to those desiring to pay their city license.

The former supply was exhausted about a week ago and the issuing of city license has been held up pending the arrival of the new batch of tags. Up to the present time approximately 800 owners of automobiles in the city have taken out the city license and it is estimated that there are about 1200 auomobiles in the city. All persons who have not yet taken out the city license tag are urged to do so at once.

Attendance Campaign

Slight Falling Off at Sabbath Schools Noted

Reports of last weeks Sunday School attendance show a slight falling off of the total number in school from that reported the previous week. The M. E. South which was in the lead last week has now taken second place being passed in its average percentage of attendance by the Second Baptist which last week came in second. The First Baptist still holds the third place on the list with an attendance last Sunday of 517.

The total number attending the six Sunday Schools which are engaged in this friendly campaign was 1642 last Sunday while the week previous an even 1800 were marked up. It is hoped that teh heat may not force a further drop tomorrow.

Merchants To Take Part

Special Sales Planned By 18 Merchants During Chautauqua Week

The Guarantors of he Alexandria Chautauqua were very much gratified over the announcement yesterday that Chautauqua week in Alexandria, July 11 to 17, would this year be given special notice by many of the retail merchants. Up to the present time eighteen merchants have signified their intention of marking the week of "Chautauqua Week Sales." It is hoped that these sales will bring to Alexandria from the neighboring territory many people who might very profitably spend their time here shopping and afterward enjoying some of the many entertaining and instructive features which Chautauqua presents. Every one who boosts Chautauqua boosts Alexandria. Chautauqua is like six days of College Training coming to our town. It will be a college in a tent to be sure, on the old familiar grounds on upper King street, but no one can afford to miss a single session. Secure season tickets early. By the sale of season ticket only can the guarantee be met. It is good business to get a whole program's worth of entertainment for less than one half the cost for single admissions.

SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise party was given in honor of Miss M. J. Keegan, at her home, 801 South Patrick street, by a number of clerks of the Southern Railway. A very enjoyable evening was spent. Several piano selections were rendered by Miss Lucy Wilkins and Miss Helen Crippen, a duet was also sung by Mrs. Ella Milstead and Miss Ellen Mitchell.

Refreshments were served on the lawn. Those present were: Mrs. Betty Chervalley, Mrs. Virginia Allen, Mrs. Augusta Noack, Mrs. Lillian Boisseau, Mrs. Ella Milstead, Mrs. Elizabeth Kergan, Mrs. Catherine McGahey, Mrs. Mable Chewning, the Misses Mary Kreamer, Elsie Morgan, Leota Seaton, Annie Spencer, Norine Mahon, Anna Straub, Grace Riker, Mary Ire, Emma Ire, Lucy Wilkins, Ruby Cooksey, Blanche Fadely, Ruby Sheffield, Nora Baggett, Mary Caldwell, Ione Duncan, Julia Ready, Ellen Mitchell, Eleanor McGahey, Helen Crippen, Agnes Johanson, Dorothy Noack, Mr. Louis Howder and Mr. George Keegan.

MONDAY NIGHT AT OPERA HOUSE

The arrangements for the Trinkle mass-meeting on Monday night 27th inst., at the Opera House, are about completed. On Monday we will publish the complete program, which promises to be one of the most interesting events of its kind that has ever taken place in Alexandria. The quartette, composed of Mrs. Harry White, Mrs. Sherman B. Fowler, Kenneth W. Ogden and Arthur Bryant, will grace the occasion with several beautiful selections. The Illch Orchestra will also be heard in several popular numbers. The Alexandria Citizens' Band will give an open-air concert and perhaps one or two selections in the house. Senator Trinkle is noted for his eloquence and his address will richly merit the attention and consideraton of Alexandria's citizens.

The friends of Mr. Francis Edgar Johnston, son of former Assistant Postmaster James E. Johnston, will be interested to learn that he graduated this month from George Washington University with distinction and has been appointed instructor in mathematics at the University of Illinois. Mr Johnston is a graduate of the Alexandria High School

Licenses Due

Merchants Urged To Pay At Mayor's Office

The licenses for merchants of the city are now due and payable. The mayor requests all merchants to call at his office and settle at once and save the necessity of having policemen call and collect them. Comparatively few merchants thus far have paid and the delinquents are urged to make prompt settlement.

SENATE HOSTILE TO ALLIED DEBT PLAN

Adverse to Empowering Mellon to Accept German Bonds

BILL MAY BE ALTERED

McKellar Asserts Scheme Might Cost United States $11,000,000,000 — Says We Would Lose

Washington, June 25.—Indications today were strong that the Senate will not give the wide powers to Secretary Mellon that President Harding wants him to have in handling the refunding of Allied debts to this country. Specifically, the Senate will not agree to giving permission to the Secretary to accept German reparation bonds, in lieu of Allied nations' obligations, which the President knew could be done if Congress passed the bill Senator Penrose introduced at the Administration's request.

Following attack on the scope of the measure made by Senator McKellar Democrat, of Tennessee, Senator Smoot, of Utah, the Republican fiscal expert, agreed that restrictions would have to be made in the bill, and stated that it will not come out of the Finance Committee, to which it has been referred, until Secretary Mellon appears and explains what he has in mind with regard to the general refunding plans. A poll of the Finance Committee indicated that practically that would permit exchange of Allied for German bonds.

The President, it is understood, in having the power to swap Allied for German bonds put in the bill, giving Secretary Mellon power to refund, had in mind the possibility that some of the newly created states in Europe might come into possession of German reparation bonds and that such an event might create some new situations for this country. That is not regarded by the Senate as sufficient reason for giving the power requested.

Senator McKellar, in opening fire on the measure, emphasized the fact that the United States loaned money to the nations associaed with her in the war on their paper at par, with interest the same as that paid by this Government to its citizens from whom it borrowed.

He then pointed out that under the bill which contemplates the refunding of 11,000,000,000 of indefinite obligations to this country into long-term bonds, with definite interest and definite maturities, it would be possible to accept German bonds now selling for about 20 cents on the dollar, at par, in place of the obligations of the Allied nations.

"Blanket authority would be given under this bill," he said, "to take German, Austrian and Turkish bonds at par for the English, French and Italian promises to pay. The result would be that in the end we would pay $11,000,000,000 of the German indebtedness."

"Frankly," said Senator Smoot, "I think the bill gives the Secretary of the Treasury too much authority, but I know the Secretary would not accept $11,000,000,000 of German bonds for a like amount of Allied securities"

"Then, why provide for it at all?" asked Seanto McKellar.

"I cannot imagine a man in an insane asylum being willing to accept German bonds for the other securities," replied Senator Smoot. "If he tried to, Congress would stop him."

"Negotiations might have proceeded too far by that time," Senator McKellar observed, "to stop him."

LEWIS H. McDANIEL DIES

The deceased was a member of Sarepta Lodge, No. 16, Odd Fellows. His funeral will take place at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon from St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Services will be conducted by Rev. Perry Foster Hall, rector, and burial will be in the Methodist Protestant cemetery.

Decision Of Interest

Case Against Carpenters' District Council Dismissed.

Mr. Justice Hitz, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, yesterday discharged a rule to show cause and dismissed the petition for writ of mandamus filed by William R. Mabrey against the Carpenters' District Council of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, Thomas W. Woltz, District Secretary Local N. 132, of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, and L. W. Matter Financial Secretary of said Local. This case has been pending in the Court for some time, and testimony was taken about a year ago.

The petitioner, William R. Mabrey, claimed he was fined $50 and suspended six months for refusing to join in a strike while employed on government work in the erection of the Union Plaza Dormitories. In seeking dismissal he asserted that he regarded the oath of allegiance to the government when doing government work as superior to that of the Union. It developed upon the hearing before Mr. Justice Hitz that Mabrey was one of about 300 men who were fined and suspended by the Union, and Mabrey's was a test case to determine the right of all of them.

The Union officials denied that Mabrey was a bona fide employee of the government, but asserted that he returned to work for the George A. Fuller Company after a strike had been declared and after having received from the Union strike benefits.

In submitting the case to the court, counsel for the defendants contended first that Mabrey was not entitled to resort to the civil courts for relief without first exhausting remedies provided by the laws of his union, and pointed out that Mabrey had never availed himself of the right given him to appeal to the higher tribunals of his own union. On the other hand, Mabrey's contention was that the provision of the union's by-laws that he deposit the amount of his fine as a prerequisite to the appeal was unreasonable and burdonsome, and for that reason he was not called upon to pursue his remedy by appeal.

The contention was also made on behalf of the Union, that even though the Court should find that it was unnecessary for Mabrey to exhaust the remedies provided by the laws of his union, before resorting to the civil courts, that the finding of the carpenters district council on the charges preferred against Mabrey were final and conclusive upon the merits of the case and binding upon the court. In view of the fact that it was shown that charges had been properly preferred against Mabrey, a notice of the charges and of the date of trial and an opportunity to be heard were afforded him in conformity with the law of the union, and a trial was had in good faith.

The union officials are naturally elated over the outcome of this suit as they feel that any other decision would have destroyed discipline within the union, and practically prevented them from settling differences within their own ranks.

The court refused to uphold Mabrey's claim that he was working for the United States Government, instead of the George A. Fuller Company. The case was an outgrowth of a bitter fight between the Master Builders' Association of New York and the Union officials. The union claimed in the suit that they had voluntarily negotiated a raise in wages with many independent contractors in New York after the war, when the Master Builders' refused to agree to the new wage agreement, and declared a lockout against the union, resulting in the latter calling off all their men on jobs being done by the members of the Master Builders' Association. The Fuller Company was a member of this association, and was at that time doing work in Washington.

Leo P. Harlow and Henry I. Quinn appeared as counsel for the unions, and their officials, and Wilton J. Lambert and Rudolph H. Yeatman appeared for Mabrey.

West Hempstead, N. Y., June 25.—Lawrence Kubal, aged 38, a farm laborer, confessed last night, police said, to having murdered Mrs. Minnie S. Bartlett, wealthy widow, in her home here last Wednesday.

RUPTURE WITH SPAIN

By a letter from Cadiz, dated the 13th of April last, it appears that a rupture between this country and the present government of Spain is apprehended. The Spaniards complain of us for seizing Florida, and for secretly approving of the revolutionary ferment in their American dominions, and openly acknowledging the right of their subjects to revolt. The writer of the letter states that report on the subject had been laid before the Cortes, with a recommendation that it should be immediately acted upon in that body.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Headquarters of the American Legion is launching a service drive in the Old Dominion on July 27 in an effort to locate every ex-service man who has a claim against the government which has not been settled. Assistance will be rendered these men in adjusting such claims, and the aims of the legion as a permanent American institution will be outlined to those who saw service in the war. The drive will open with a mass-meeting in Winchester, and will be continued for three weeks with meetings in every congressional district in Virginia. There will be an average of three meetings in each district, arranged by the respective district chairmen, and in this way it is believed that practically every ex-soldier, sailor or marine in the state will be reached.

Richmond—Means of reclaiming and colonizing with desirable citizens several millions acres of farm land in Virginia, will be on the subject of a conference of prominent citizens from every section of the state which will be called by Governor Davis in Richmond this fall. Salvation of millions of acres of what is known to be the richest land in the state will be the result of the idea which originated with officials of the Real Estate Association. Exactly how the end in view will be accomplished will be decided at the conference.

Petersburg—The city council of Petersburg has made a flat offer of $50,000 payable in five per cent city of Petersburg 10 year bonds to the Walnut Hill Improvement Corporation for the title to that company's improvements on Walnut Hill, which the city is desirous of annexing. Walnut Hill adjoins the city and is the most fashionable suburb of Petersburg. The present taxable personal property is about $700,000, but it is expected that in the event of annexation the total value will be assessed much higher and will probably be increased by a million and a half dollars.

GIVES EMPLOYMENT TO TOTAL OF 400 MEN

Fruit Growers Express Has Enlarged its Plant Here

1000 CARS A MONTH

Payroll of Concern is Between $50,000 And $60,000—Big Help to Merchants of the City

An industry at the gates of the city giving employment to 400 men which few Alexandrians realize is in operation is the Fruit Growers' Express.

Recently the concern has greatly enlarged its car building and repair facilities. It has two yards for the repair of cars exclusively, one being located in Alexandria and one in Jacksonville, Fla. The yard here is far larger than the one in Florida. The work done at the yard here is from the smallest kind of repair work, such as tightning of a bolt up to the complete construction of a car. During the course of a month, it is estimated that approximately 1,000 cars are handled here.

This concert company's payroll here averages between $50,000 and $60,000 a month. E. A. Sweely, is the superintendent of the Washington offices. This concern has practically all of the Southern fruit and melon business.

The majority of the employes of the company either live here or directly north of here and the merchants of the city reap the benefit of this big organization.

WANDERER TO HANG IF MIND FUNCTIONS

Chicago, June 25.—Unless Carl Wanderer, slayer of his girl wife, her unborn babe and an unidentified stranger can prove that he has become a gibbering idiot since he was sentenced to death he must hang, Judge David indicated in Criminal Court today.

"If Wanderer knows and understands the court's sentence and is able to communicate with his attorneys, even though he has all the mental diseases that can be conjured, he will have to hang," the judge said.

Wanderer will be called to the witness stand to answer the one question if he knows he has been sentenced to hang.

WISCONSIN DRYEST YET; HOME BREWING BARRED

Madison, Wis., June 25.—A drastic prohibition enforcement bill, introduced by Governor Blaine, and containing a provision agreed on by committees of both Houses of the Legislature prohibiting home brewing, was passed by the Assembly today.

The Governor was said to have agreed to sign the measure despite his stand in vetoing the Matheson bill, largely because it prohibited the manufacture of liquor in the home.

MARTIAL LAW IN ERIN IS FIXED FOR JULY 12

Dublin, June 24.—It is now definitely fixed that martial law will be declared in Ireland July 12 unless the Sinn Fein agrees to a settlement with England before that date.

A last great effort is being made by British civilian officials to induce the Sinn Fein to accept terms. Eamann de Valera has been asked to meet Sir James Craig on the understanding that the Ulster Premier brings in writing Great Britain's offer with suitable guarantees and that nothing else be discussed.

De Valera, however, refused, declaring he would not negotiate unless he received a written proposal signed by Lloyd George himself. If there is no settlement by July 12 the military will be given free hand and large reinforcements.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

The reign of Antoninus is marked by the rare advantage of furnishing very few materials for history, which is indeed little more than the register of the crimes, follies, and misfortunes of mankind.

Gibbon.

Virginia's Need.

Col. Henry W. Anderson, of Richmond, recently delivered an address to a large audience at the Navy Y. M. C. A., in Norfolk. Among other things he declared Virginia to be politically and economically dead. He declared that it would be necessary to revise her constitution before she could achieve her freedom from an antiquated system of state management. He graciously asseverates, however, that the fault is not with her men but with her institutions. Of course we cannot agree with Col. Anderson in many of his premises or all of his conclusions, and we totally repudiate his politics. But the fact that Virginia ranks forty-second out of forty-eight states in her number of illiterates; that her roads repel rather than attract travel for the tourist; that her teachers are paid less than in most of the other states; and that her farms are being abandoned by the young men who are turning to the industrial field; these things are worthy of serious attention on the part of the electorate.

What Virginia really needs is a business administration at Richmond. At the primary of August 2d, an opportunity will be given to vote for a man who possesses all the qualifications of a successful executive. We refer, of course, to Senator E. Lee Trinkle, who speaks at the Opera House on Monday night. Senator Trinkle is a forceful and convincing speaker. He is fully alive to the situation, and no man in the state has had greater experience in legislative matters, or knows better how to get what he goes after.

A large crowd is promised on Monday night at the Opera House, and we hope every man and woman in Alexandria will make it a point to be present.

Boosters' Trips

We notice that 200 of the business men of Washington recently made a trip to Norfolk and way stations, on the steamer "Midland;" primary purpose to boost Washington; secondary, to mingle with the boosters of other parts and have a good time. This booster outing is had annually, and advertises Washington and its merchants conspicuously.

We suggest to our time-honored Chamber of Commerce, and to our energetic, if hilarious, Kiwanis Club, that the idea would not be a bad one for them to adopt. With George Warfield to lend the dignity, Kennett Ogden to orchestrate the chorus, Dr. Regester to add the wit, and Randall Caton and Noel Garner to spifflicate the multitude—what gorgeous orgies of advertisement for Greater Alexandria! With Alexandria's Own Brass Band, and a palatial steamer floating on the tides of the Potomac or the blue waters of the Chesapeake—verily, a hundred towns would awaken to the lures of trade in their proper metropolis.

TOO MANY AIR MISHAPS TO SUIT WAR SECRETARY

Washington, June 25.—Aroused by the recurring fatal accidents in the army air service, Secretary Weeks has written to Major General Menoher, chief of that service, asking that every precaution be taken to prevent further accidents.

"There have been too many accidents to suit me," said Mr. Weeks. "I have written 'General' Menoher saying that the greatest care should be used to prevent accidents if possible."

Tinctured Tobacco Plugs Sent To House Members for Volstead

Washington, June 25.—Every member of the House received by mail today a small plug of tobacco. On the card attached to each plug was this inscription:

"Useful for chewing purposes.

"Contains one grain tartar emetic.

"Please hand to Mr. Volstead."

Mr. Volstead is chairman of the Judiciary Committee and author of the Dry Enforcement law, as well as the more drastic supplementary bill which has been sidetracked by the more conservative prohibitionists. Although he is strongly opposed to liquor in any form, Mr. Volstead is extremely fond of chewing tobacco.

Bricklayer Recommends Chasco-Nim

Took Two Bottles When All Run-Down and Now Feels Fine

"I was all run-down and had a bad cough that hung on and on and even though I kept doctoring all the time. But a short time ago some friends recommended Chasco-Vin the strength creating tonic and it certainly fixed me up and built me up and now I feel fine and I have only taken two bottles of it. That tired dragged out feeling is all gone and so is the cough that I had.

In my opinion Chasco-Vin is a great medicine and one of the best kinds of a tonic. It made me feel like working." V. Graham, 617 Mt. Vernon Street, Camden, N. J. Bricklayer.

GIRLS! BLEACH SKIN WHITE WITH LEMON

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

What A Tonic Does For You

And Why you Need it, in so Many Instances When You Are Run Down Nervous or Have Had to Endure Great Strain or Worry of Any Kind

A tonic is something which puts tone, energy, strength and endurance into you. It gives a push to your heart making it pump the blood over your body more vigorously; it makes your lungs expand more fully and thereby take up more strength-giving oxygen from the air you breathe; it makes your kidneys work better and carry off the poisons which would otherwise accumulate in the body; it makes your diestive apparatus perform its work better and give your blood the material it needs for feeding and sustaining your body: It makes your brain act more vigorously and enables you to think more accurately and for long periods without fatigue, thus bringing you greater success in whatever business, profession or undertaking you are engaged.

When you are rundown, nervous, half sick, down-hearted and about ready to give up experience of many years has shown that one of the best remedies to pull you out of this sad predicament is good old organic iron. But be sure the iron you take is organic iron, the kind that is found in plasm, and not metallic iron which people usually take. Organic iron may be had from your druggist under the name of Nuxated Iron. It often increases the strength, energy and endurance of weak, nervous, tired out folks in two weeks time. Beware of substitutes. Always look for the word "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.

DRESSMAKER MADE WELL

Followed a Neighbor's Advice and Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Vernon, Tex.—"For three years I suffered untold agony each month with pains in my sides. I found only temporary relief in doctor's medicine or anything else I took until my husband saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I mentioned it to a neighbor and she told me she had taken it with good results and advised me to try it. I was then in bed part of the time and my doctor said I would have to be operated on, but we decided to try the Vegetable Compound and I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a dressmaker and am now able to go about my work and do my housework besides. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial as I am always glad to speak a word for your medicine."—Mrs. W. M. STEPHENS, 1103 N. Commerce St., Vernon, Texas.

Dressmakers when overworked are prone to such ailments and should profit by Mrs. Stephen's experience.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., about your health. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Messrs. J. H. Brown and Robert Waters, of Alexandria, attended a dance in Manassas, last night.

The many friends of Tommy Degnan will be glad to learn that he is rapidly improving, at the Garfield Hospital, where he was operated on for appendicitis, last Saturday.

For the second time since the first of the year, announcement is made of another big cut in the prices of Dort Motor Cars. This second reduction will be announced in the advertising columns of the Gazette on Monday and is a further drop of from $130 to $150 on each car.

SPORTS

Two games are scheduled for the Dreadnaughts Sunday afternoon at Baggett's Field, the starter getting under way at 2.30 with the Camp Meade Post Team opposing the locals followed immediately by the Westover A. C., of Georgetown.

The soldiers have won over eigth other teams in the Camp Meade League race, which carries with it the honor to represent the camp in the final games for the Eastern Army Championship, which begins in July. Their manager was in Alexandria today completing final arrangements for Sunday's game, and gave to Manager Allen of the Dreadnaughts his team's record, which is eighteen games won out of twenty played, including wins over Baltimore's best amateur clubs, their only defeats being at the hands of the Baltimore Hampdens, the best semi-pro club in that city, both games being decided by a two run margin.

The Westover Athletic Club the D's second opponent Sunday, boasts of victories over the Indian Head, Winatons, Naval Hospital, Marines, Shamrocks, Gibralters and other fast nines. The team is composed of players of the Spalding Council nine of the K. C. League and the Treasury club of the Departmental League. As Manager Mat Noone is well acquainted with the strength of the locals he will bring over a fast nine to oppose the Alexandria clubmen, pitching either Lefty Payne of the Knicks or Hawthorne of the Treasury Club.

These exhibitions promise to be banner attractions, no doubt drawing large following of fans, the Dreadnaught's will have their hands full in securing the verdict over these fast visiting aggrestions. All in all, the first contest should be hard fought and interesting throughout, as both clubs have enviable records in their respective sections. The Dreadnaughts will have every man in familiar positions and with two well known candidates trying for the "hot corner" job, should be there with two additional victories to their great record.

"IS IT JUST A COLD?"

Alexandria People Should Ask Themselves This Question.

Don't say: "It's just a cold."

It may turn into backache, rheumatic aches, achy joints.

Or other serious sickness that comes from weak kidneys.

Colds are due to congestion.

Colds often leave the kidneys weak.

First break the cold;

Then use Doan's Kidney Pills to avert the kidney dangers.

Let this Alexandria resident tell you about them.

Mrs. Walker Campbell, 707 Pendleton St., says: "I caught a cold and it settled in my kidneys. I had such pains I could hardly catch my breath sometimes. When I bent over it was hard to straighten again, the pain was so bad. My kidneys acted very irregularly esepcially at night. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Duncan's Drug Store and took them according to directions. I was entirely cured and, thought that was over two years ago, I have had no return of kidney trouble since."

your conduct in having again delivered a highly improper speech in a foreign country, and you are hereby publicly reprimanded."

The correspondence in the matter consists of Secretary Denby's formal letter to Admiral Sims, quoting some of the press reports of the London speech, the Admiral's formal reply and the Secretary's letter of reprimand. In the reply of Admiral Sims, he said that the speech, which was delivered before the English Speaking Union on June 7, was not prepared and was delivered from a few headings, written on a piece of paper. Before leaving London he said, he took pains to prepare the copy of the speech submitted to the Secretary, using reports made in the London papers and being aided by Commander Land, Assistant Naval Attache, who was present when the speech was made.

"The essential incorrectness of the reports that were made on this side," Admiral Sims continued, "is contained in the following paragraph from your letter:

We have a class of people on the other side who are technically Americans, some of them born there, some naturalized. They are at war against America today and at war against you. The simple truth is that they have the blood of American and English boys on their hands.

"In no part of my speech did I make any such statement as that just quoted above. My reference was to the Sinn Fein faction of the Irish people who fought during the war and to Sinn Feiners who assisted them to fight us during the war. The above will show the essential difference between the two statements.

"Referring to the inclosed copy of my speech, I quote as follows:

"I have never hesitated to say that the Sinn Fein sympathizers in America who helped the Sinn Feiners in Ireland to fight the Allies during the war had the blood of American and English boys on their hands."

"The above is the vital misquotation that was made on this side; and as far as I have been able to judge from the comments in the press, it is this misquotation which has naturally caused so much discussion.

"In essential connection with the above, I beg to invite attention to the fact that upon no occasion have I ever made any attack upon the Irish people in Ireland or the Irish in America though it is constantly stated in the press that I have done so. On the contrary, in everything that I have written on the subject and in everything that I have said, I have taken particular pains specifically to state my admiration for the Irish peopel and their conduct toward my forces during the war. A reference to my book, "The Victory at Sea," will show the terms in which I referred to the kindly treatment we received from the Irish in Ireland.

"In the book above referred to, and as a matter of historical record, I stated the nature of the dangerous hostility of the Sinn Fein faction in Ireland and how much it cost the Allies in military effort to counteract them."

Admiral Sims then called attention to the commendation given by former Secretary Daniels to these references in his book to Sinn Fein faction in Ireland and how much it cost the Allies in military effort to counteract them."

Admiral Sims then called attention to the commendation given by former Secretary Daniels to these references in his book to Sinn Fein activities in Ireland during the war. The commendation, he said, is in the form of a letter to a man in Philadelphia, and is a part of the official record of the Senate committee that investigated Admiral Sims' criticism of the conduct of the navy during the war.

Ex-Gov. Stuart Helps Trinkle

Richmond, Va., June 25.—When here a few days ago Governor Henry Carter Stuart, declared that he was on hand and in time to keep his promise to Senator E. Lee Trinkle to help him in the campaign for the governorship. The impression was made that Governor Stuart declined to discuss his intentions, but that is not what the governor told his friends, and referred to the statement he made when he started on his journey early last February. Then the statement was that he regretted that he was leaving, as he would be denied the duty and pleasure of doing what he could to assist the nomination of his friend, Senator Trinkle. He declared, too, that he would be back here not later than July 1 and that he would then participate actively in the work of making Senator Trinkle Governor.

"The statement then made," said Governor Stuart, "holds good, and I am going to do that very thing—actively assist in the task of making Senator Trinkle the next governor. I am not sayin that I will or will not make speeches, but I am going to do everything that is humanly possible to bring about his nomination." It is expected that Governor Stuart will confine his activities to the Ninth district, where he is well known, and where he has spent all his life. He knows the people of that section, wields a powerful influence, is very popular and diposes of the idea that may have been circulated that Governor Stuart was seeking to dodge the support of a man whom he has known all his life, whom he declares has always been held in high esteem, who stands by his friends, is able, active and intelligent, and is a man whose "face is to the rising, not to the setting sun."

The fight for the governorship is attracting attention and the supporters of that gentleman appear to be sanguine and confident. In fact when they have been seen and have discussed the matter they do not hesitate to say that Senator Trinkle will certainly carry seven districts, and they declare that he has enough majority in four of these to offset whatever majority the remaining six may possibly give Mr. Tucker.

There was in Richmond yesterday a man who is interested in the candidacy of another man for a State office—other than the governorship—and this man said that he had visited nearly every county west of Richmond and Fredericksburg and had availed himself of the chance to hear expressions of opinion on the governorship. He declared that wherever he had been and wherever crowds had collected, even small groups, he had heard more mention and declarations in favor of Senator Trinkle than of any other man in the race for any office. And this man is, if the popular belief is correct, a supporter of Mr. Tucker for governor, though he has not made any open declaration in the premises so far as known.

Just at this time the estimate is that Senator Trinkle will carry these districts, First, Second, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Ninth, and while one or two of these will be close there will be more than enough margin in four districts to overcome any lead that may possibly be registered against him. Senator Trinkle is on the stump day and night, visiting many places and he is making speeches before immense crowds. He has been well received, and as a speaker he is easily one of the foremost in Virginia. He is a fearless and bold champion of a thing he believes right, and whether popular or unpopular he stands for that which appears to him right. Powerful influences have tried to control him, but he has never been turned aside from his conception of right, regardless of consequences.

ARE THE JAPANESE REALLY EFFICIENT?

Not If You Judge Them By Their Telephones, Says Julian Street

Although the Western World has begun to take for granted that the Japanese have reached an enviable position in the world because of an alleged efficiency in all matters, a close inspection of actual facts shows up the Jap as almost childish. Writing for McClure's Magazine in an article entitled, "Are the Japanese Efficient?" Julian Street, noted traveler and writer, gives many instances of stupid Japanese inefficiency, particularly as to telegraphs, telephones and transportation.

"Tokyo, with a transportation problem which ought easily to be solved, has utterly inadequate street car service," says Mr. Street. "The rush hour there is only saved from being as terrible as the rush hour in New York by the lack of subterranean features.

"But it is in all matters having to do with communications that Japanese inefficiency is most strikingly brought to the notice of strangers. The postal service is poor, the cable service is expensive and absurdly slow (when I was in Japan it took about ten days to cable to America and get an answer back), and the telephone service is unbelievably awful. All these, like the railroads, are owned and operated by the Government.

SUMMER'S THE PLAY-TIME OF THE YEAR

Sometimes it seems that we've curbed our imagination a little too much as to the many occasions which demand White Shoes, for our customers are actually "falling in love" with the different patterns.

There are lasts and leathers, trimmings and trimness designed to charm the most exacting Summer Girl. Correct to a fault, and they're not high priced, either.
